

The Wonderful Wizard of Oz

by L. Frank Baum

L. Frank Baum's enchanting fantasy follows Dorothy and her companions on a journey through a magical land, blending adventure, imagination, and the enduring message that there is no place like home.

Rank #4

Elite 10

Power Words

#	WORD	DEFINITION
1	astonished	adj. very surprised or amazed by something. "The Scarecrow was utterly astonished to discover that he had been thinking clever thoughts all along."
1	bewildering	adj. causing confusion or puzzlement. "The bewildering array of yellow roads confused Dorothy, who feared she might never find the right one."
1	captivate	v. to attract and hold someone's attention. "The Wizard's booming voice and billowing smoke never failed to captivate every visitor to his throne room."
1	disheartened	v. to depress or destroy the hope or confidence of; discourage; dispirit. "The Tin Woodman grew disheartened whenever he recalled how he had once been capable of love."
1	earnestly	adv. in a serious and sincere way. "The Scarecrow earnestly assured his companions that a brain was all he needed to solve any problem."
1	enchanted	adj. under a spell or magical influence. "Dorothy walked through the enchanted forest, where the trees seemed to whisper warnings at every step."
1	luminous	adj. giving off or reflecting light. it can describe something that shines or glows. "The Emerald City gleamed in a luminous green glow that could be seen from miles across the plain."
1	mercilessly	adv. in a way that shows no mercy or kindness. "The Wicked Witch mercilessly commanded her soldiers to seize Dorothy before she reached the city gates."
1	obediently	adj. obeying or willing to obey; complying with or submissive to authority "The Winged Monkeys obediently descended upon Dorothy's companions, carrying out the Witch's cruel command."
1	perilous	adj. full of danger or risk. "The perilous journey across the field of enchanted poppies nearly cost Dorothy and her friends everything."
1	persevere	v. to keep trying despite difficulties or failure. "Despite every obstacle, Dorothy chose to persevere, keeping her eyes fixed on the glittering city ahead."
1	radiant	adj. shining brightly or emitting light. "Glinda appeared radiant and serene, her silver wand catching the light as she smiled down at Dorothy."
1	reluctantly	adv. in an unwilling or hesitant manner. "The Cowardly Lion reluctantly entered the dark forest, trembling at every rustle among the shadowed trees."
1	terrifying	adj. causing great fear or dread. "The terrifying shriek of the Wicked Witch echoed across the poppy field, scattering the crows."
1	vanquish	v. to defeat someone completely in battle or competition. "Dorothy did not set out to vanquish the Wicked Witch; she only wanted to find her way home."